MAXIM 80

Ontario Bible College

Mr. Wm. Wallace

Mr. and Mrs.

Mr. and Pooh

The staff of Maxaipa '80, had no problem coming to a unanimous decision as to whom this book would be dedicated. Certain stipulations were made - he would have to be short, cute, fun-loving, have a vital enthusiasm for work and for the students of O.B.C., and live up to our theme of being an example. We found such a person in Mr. Wallace.

He is a man with a wide experience in mission work. His previous experience includes serving the Lord in a pastorate in Newfoundland as well as being a missionary in Ethiopia. He serves on various mission boards and supervises some mission teams which go out from the school.

Among his accomplishments, he has done some doctoring; he can do marvelous things with his vocal chords, as many in his linguistics course will testify; he is also a fantastic whistler. Some may remember him best as the charming cupid at our valentine's banquet. This was just one evidence of his willingness to give of his time and himself to the students of O.B.C. Many have been encouraged over the years by his example of faithfulness.

This is Mr. Wallace, and to him do we affectionately dedicate this book.

President's Message

There is no time in your Christian life - whether a new or an older Christian - when God does not call you to be an example! It is precisely by being an example that one's youth is not despised. Exemplary living is a most potent power of influence.

Timothy was a bright young man, apt to teach, apt to administer, apt to serve the needs of others. But Paul knew that unless he was an example of Godly living, his ministry would fail!

College life provides the atmosphere, and occasion during some of the most formative years of your life to be and to become an example in Christian life.

Be an example in speech! The Word is very practical. We are called to speak the truth on all occasions. We are also called to be committed to the sanctity of truth. With Luther we need to cry: "My conscience is bound to the Word of God, I can do no other." We are also called to speak the truth in love so as to edify one another and to give grace to the hearer. The mastery of the Word of God and the gracious communication of it to others are to go hand in hand.

Be thou an example in conduct. This refers to our total way and style of life. It incorporates our daily relationship to God's people, to unbelievers and to God. Our model of conduct is no one less than God: "Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect." (Matt. 5:18) "Have the mind of Christ" writes Paul in Phillippians 2. In order to be an example in conduct we need to look steadfastly to Jesus - "the author and perfecter of our faith".

Be an example in faith! By faith we receive the wonderful gift of salvation in Christ (John 3). By faith we also become achievers for God (Hebrews 11).

Be an example in purity! Purity has reference to a heart of singular loyalty and devotion to Christ and to His holy moral law. Only the pure in heart shall see God!

I am glad you have chosen to spend part of your life at OBC. It is our hope that your intellectual growth in knowledge and understanding of the will of God, and your personal spiritual fitness in life and conduct may enable you to be an exemplary Christian among men.

Victor Adrian

Chancellor's Message

A common expression so often heard is, "Oh, to be young again!" Actually, for those in the evening of life who have walked with God since the days of their youth, their great objective increasingly becomes the heavenly home and the glories beyond. So many of our Gospel songs and choruses emphasize this aspect.

But, young people, you who have been transformed by God's saving grace, life is still before you as a great adventure, and your potential for good and for God is well-nigh indescribable. Your theme taken from Paul's first letter to young Timothy is a classic - "Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith, and in purity." (1 Timothy 4:12, NIV)

This is a tall order, but it carries with it, not merely a Good Housekeeping seal so often seen, but God's eternal seal and the guarantee of His approbation and pleasure. Just think what would happen in our school if each of us were to control his tongue, deport himself pleasingly at all times, esteem others better than himself, walk as a child of The King with head held high, always seeking only those things that are pure and lovely!

How pleased our wonderful Lord would be, what blessed peace would garrison our souls, and how unspeakably great our influence would be whether inside the College or beyond its immediate borders!

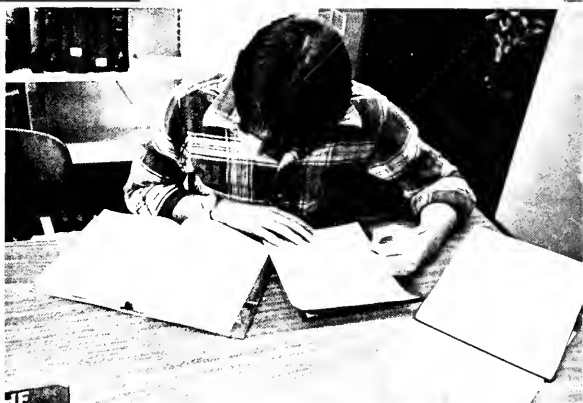

May these be glorious days for you as you walk with the Lord, and as we share His grace and His bounty together!

S. D. Borhmer

OF THE MIDTERM SEASON

There is a certain atmosphere in the school, of quiet concern to others
... multitudes of prayer whispered to God ...
... all nighters,
lots of coffee ...
Waking friends in morning classes, Nudging away long desired and needed sleep ...
Being alone.
Putting it all together. A still atmosphere ...
... people speaking in hushed tones ...
piles of notes and books in weary arms.
Quietness ... an understanding of others.
A fellowship by common cause and effort.
A time of drawing near.
A time of upholding others.
And in this season of withered leaves and brisk nippy winds; the season of midterms, one grows to appreciate the seriousness of our high calling in Christ Jesus
our Lord.

Tiidi Eller '79

So Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite spoke out and said,
"I am young in years and you are old;
Therefore I was shy and afraid to tell you what I think.
I thought age should speak,
And increased years should teach wisdom.
"But it is a spirit in man,
And the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding.

JOB 32: 6-8

Now the word of the Lord came to me saying,
"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,
And before you were born I consecrated you;
I have appointed you a prophet to the nations."
Then I said, "Alas, Lord God!
Behold, I do not know how to speak,
Because I am a youth."

But the Lord said to me,
"Do not say, 'I am a youth,'
Because everywhere I send you, you shall go,
And all that I command you, you shall speak.
"Do not be afraid of them,
For I am with you to deliver you."
declares the Lord.

Message from Maxaipa

To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ, who are of O.B.C., grace to you and peace from God our Father. If somehow you thought that this was one of the newly discovered epistles of Paul, I am sorry to disappoint you. This is only the mutterings of a confused Bible college student. This year due to the fact previous yearbooks have not had a page of communicate to the student body; and for the benefit of those deprived students not attending Mr. Roe's Greek course; we felt the need to expound on the title of our "beloved" book.

In the original symbols the title is Maxaipa. To many this may seem like a combination of an overgrown "u", followed by three fish. In any case, if these symbols look all Greek to you, the transliteration is Maxaipa. However, due to popular belief it is not pronounced Max-ā-pā, but rather Ma-kī-rā. And please! The "r" must be rolled. And now, for those of you who have been sitting on the edge of your seats madly flipping through your Lexicons, the meaning of the title which inspirationally dons our book is "The Sword".

The theme for this year's yearbook is 11 Timothy 4:12. "Let no one look down on your youthfulness, but rather in speech, conduct, love, faith, and purity, show yourself an example of those who believe". I hope you find this an inspiring scripture text; and that we as a yearbook staff have presented it homogeneously throughout the pages, catching the highlights of the year in our pictures and print.

On behalf of the yearbook staff: To the graduates, may God be with you always, as you strive to be an example in His ministry. We will miss, and pray for you all; to the under-graduates, we will be looking forward to seeing you next year. And to all the students, faculty, and staff, thank-you for making this year a fruitful and enjoyable one.

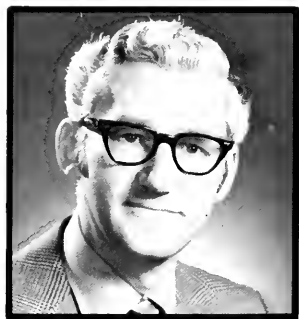

May God Richly Bless You.

Dr. V. Adrian
President, O.B.C.

Dr. R. Matheson
Dean of O.T.S.

The President's cabinet meets weekly to pray, plan and coordinate, the many activities of College and Seminary. The men on the Cabinet would like to see a spiritual setting and atmosphere with a well planned program enabling faculty and staff to contribute with joy, their best gifts to the growing and maturing of every student on campus.

Mr. R. Duez
Academic Dean,
Professor of Theology

Mr. D. Bell
Asst. to the President.
(Co-Chairman of Chris. Ed.)

Rev. G. Taylor
Community Life Chairman

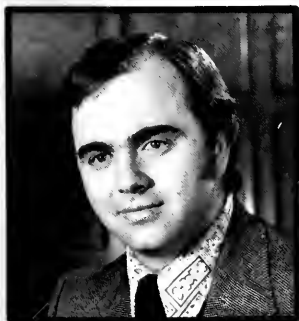

Mr. G. Stephens
Dean of Students

Working closely with the department of Biblical studies, the department of Theology strives to give systematic instruction of God's revelation concerning Himself, man, man's sin, and God's salvation. The goal of this is to encourage a daily walk in accordance with God's revealed standards and to develop confidence in defending the faith against attacks of unbelief in its many forms. The instructors in this department this year are Mr. R. Duez, Mr. T. Tiessen, and Dr. M. Di Gangi.

Theology

The only way to get to know God better is through His Word. The department of Biblical Studies teaches methods and techniques for mastering the contents and message of selected portions of Scripture and, in this way, equips the student for a life of thorough and fruitful investigation of eternal truth.

Bible

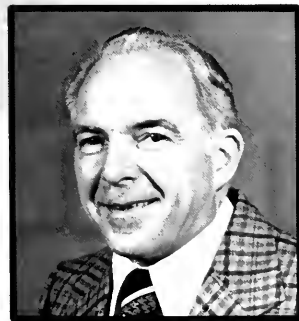

Mr. B.E. Roe

Dr. B. Martin

Mr. G. Wyper

Rev. G. Dorey

Pastoral Studies

The Pastoral department concentrates on training pastors for the work of ministry. In so doing a compassionate concern for the needs of people and an appreciation of the relevance of biblical truth to meet these needs is fostered.

Missions

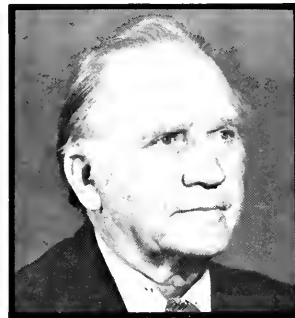

The Missions department exists informing, inspiring, and exposing students to the global plan of God and developing a concern for those who have never heard the Gospel. "Go ye therefore into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." Vision, empathy, and motivation is developed coupled with training in the Word.

Mr. M. Wallace

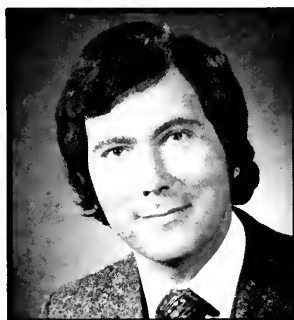

Mr. C.A. Tipp

Mr. D. Percy

Christian Ed.

Educational ministries in the local Church and Church related organizations are of key importance at home and abroad. In this department students develop a Biblical philosophy, basic skills, and an increased awareness of the task of ministering through education.

Mr. J. Wilkinson

Miss L.M. Scobie

Library

The library is invaluable to the student body. It contains over 30,000 volumes which include reference books, periodicals, and resource materials for all subjects offered at the school.

Mrs. G. Miller
Librarian

Mr. B. Poleman

Mr. J. Bell

Music

Ministering through music involves communicating in word and song. This department strives to develop an understanding and appreciation of various musical styles and to develop high standards of performance. Each student is encouraged to formulate and practice a distinctively Christian philosophy of Christian music.

Mrs. S. Kho

Arts

Mrs. E. Davey

Mr. B.G. Wright

Mr. J. Franklin

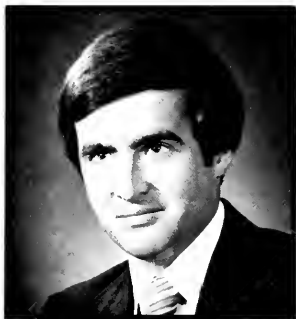

In order to effectively live in a contemporary world and minister there, the student needs to be introduced to major areas of general knowledge. The student is instructed in language, history, social science, and philosophy from the standpoint of Biblical theism.

Community Life

Mr. G.W. Stephens

Mr. R. Wilson

Miss J. Potz

An important part of the college experience involves relating to fellow Christians. This includes developing mutual trust, respect, and a sense of common purpose and commitment. The department of Community Life is concerned with initiating and maintaining this kind of experience for students as they interact with fellow students, staff and faculty.

Mr. T. Fish

Mrs. G. Thompson

Part-Time Faculty

Mr. D. Webster

Mr. T. Tiessen

Bell-boy!

De-feet!

To many of the freshman, the first week of college seemed like a jumble of initiation activities ranging from the Indoor Car Rally, to the Centre Island Picnic. At first the only thing we seemed to gain were a series of names and hometowns. But when classes rolled around we grew to appreciate the Student Council efforts; for now with new friends around us, we felt secure that we were not facing the coming year alone.

Family Picnic

On September 15, 1979, the O.B.C. family united once again for their annual picnic. The fun included a couple of football games, volleyball, baseball, and lots of food. The highlight of the day was the message by Rod Wilson about "The Camel".

THE WORK OF THE LORD

"Each one of us does the work the Lord gave him to do." I Corinthians 3:5
(Good News Bible)

To be called to full time Christian work is a great privilege and a heavy responsibility. When we know we are doing the work the Lord has given us to do we are greatly strengthened for our tasks.

The Canadian Bible Society many years ago was called by God to carry on a distinctive ministry. The work the Lord gave it to do is:

- (1) To translate the Bible so it is clear enough for everyone to understand.
- (2) To publish the Bible so it is attractive enough for everyone to want.
- (3) To distribute the Bible at a price which makes it easy enough for everyone to have.

God has honoured the work of the Canadian Bible Society.

$10,000 a day is required in Contributions for the work God has called the Canadian Bible Society to do.

Before you take off . . . never to be heard from again

200 million people have yet to see God's Word in their language. Maybe you should head in their direction.

Our current list of personnel requests from various fields numbers over 700 and includes a great variety of skills. Approximately 60 percent of Wycliffe's members are engaged in nontranslation roles such as literacy, teaching, trades and office work.

Do languages fascinate you? (Or does learning a new language frighten you?) Our Summer Institute of Linguistics can help you through accredited university courses in language learning and analysis. We also teach translation and literacy principles as well as culture orientation.

The world is before you . . . and in it are people lacking even the basics—no form of writing, no Scriptures, no relevant witness for Christ. Do you want a real challenge? Maybe you should head in their direction.

It is a privilege and honour to be a member of the Students Council, and to serve as a leader of the student body.

Along with being a servant-leader there is the expectancy to be a model in "speech, conduct, love, faith, and purity". We seek to model the Christ-like life as we look unto Jesus, the "author and finisher of our faith". Keeping our eyes fixed on Him, we can say "follow our example as we follow Christ". It is our prayer that like Paul we can without reservations say, "Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me-put into practice".

Exec.'s

1 Year Special

Through class chapels, prayer meetings, the Christmas decorating party, January retreat and all our other activities; the purpose of the One Year Special Class has been to promote love and fellowship. We have attempted to grow spiritually, to encourage Christian fellowship and good witness in our brief stay at O.B.C.

We would like to thank all those at O.B.C. this year, the faculty, staff, our fellow students and especially Dr. Martin for his support and encouragement during the year. God bless you all.

Class of '83

1 Tim 4:1-12 - Paul says that he commands and teaches these things to all Believers. Paul is speaking to the whole house of Believers; not just to those who are young.

We as believers are to get the example to the world by our speech, life style, love faith and purity.

As believers in Christ and as a class it has been our goal to become one in faith and love, and to demonstrate this oneness in our speech, and our lifestyle. It's been our prayer, as a class to become more and more like Christ, as Paul instructed Timothy and those at Ephesus.

We thank God for His mercies; for they are new each day.

Amen

Class of '82

Paul in his letter to the Philippians revealed that he wanted to know Christ in an ever deeping relationship. He knew that through this relationship the riches of the world would be counted rubbish and he would be free to enter into glorious fellowship and service with his Lord Jesus.

We as a class have chosen this section of scripture as our theme, and are trying to seek after God together; in our academic social and physical lives, that we as a group might know our Lord better each day. For we know, whether the day is dark or bright, there is a glorious hope ahead of us. - The hope of knowing the Lord each day in a more intimate way, and subsequently serving Him more faithfully.

Class of '81

Above all else this year, the '81 executive has sought to bring God the glory, in conduct and speech serving as examples to our class. But our example being so frequently insufficient, we pray that each member of the class will serve as an example of Christ liveness to the other members, thus encouraging the unified class to "abound still more and more in knowledge, and depth of insight" (Phil 1:9) into Christ our Life and Love.

Class of '80

This year has been one of tremendous growing together for some in the senior class. For others this has been a year of growing apart from the class as they strive toward their individual challenges that God has placed before them. Also within our class are those special people whom God has found worthy to suffer for Him. Through all this it has been a pleasure to serve the Class of '80, as I see the evidence of God working in each individual's life.

THE COMMITTEE

This 1979-80 year has been one of anticipation. As this year has progressed it has been exciting to see plans become realities. As Student leaders, we become realities. As Student leaders, we have been encouraged to see God working in the student body. Many aspirations culminated in the Missions Conference; and even as we write this we are confident that God, in His faithfulness, will enable us to achieve our project objective of $16,000.

As an executive it is our prayer that each student of '79-80 will develop a burden for missions - realizing that the missionary field begins wherever we are.

The Executive.

We have not sought to have you up at 5:30 am each day, neither have we black-listed you because you forgot your quiet time once during the year.

We have purposed to show the importance of being devoted Christians (rather than Christians who just have devotions), devoted to God 24 hours a day, in speech and conduct, in relationships inside, and outside the classroom, and in response to what is happening in the world.

Our prayer for the school is that each student will be an example of this type of devotion to God and commitment to others, to each one with whom he comes in contact.

At the Marketplace we have worked to set the school newspaper on the road of progress. Its rebirth and reconstruction has been dramatic and we are pleased.

However this is only the beginning. Further growth, in terms of size and frequency of publication, is in the future. The potential of the Marketplace is great. We hope this will be realized.

Social Rec.'s

Judith Perneel and Steve Kerr.

Youth, conduct, faith, purity, speech, and example are terms which amply describe an ideal O.B.C. way of life.

In the Social Recreation Committee, we are striving towards this ideal. We are the youth of tomorrow and our accomplishments will reflect on the years and youth of O.B.C. to come. The example we display in our physical activities, such as the O.B.C. Swordsmen, intramurals, and Quads, set the stage for the continuation of proper sportsmanship. The Banquets and the Blood Donor clinics display our faith and purity in unholding our Christian Standards.

We would like to thank those who participated and provided themselves as examples in the events that were planned.

Athletic Banquet

A special thanks should be given to Laird Crump and Dave Simpson for the organization and presentation of the 79/80 Athletic Banquet.

Throughout the evening, each of the O.B.C. teams, and their most valuable players were given well deserved recognition.

The dorm intramural champions were also announced. However, the climax of the evening was the announcement of the Best Male and Female Athlete. A Special Congratulations go to Paul Peebles and Sally Lichtenburg as recipients of the Best Male and Female Athlete Award for 1979-80.

PRAYER Missions GROUPS

Prayer Groups

Asia: Rita Wong and Colin Kohlsmith.

EUROPE

The effective prayer of the righteous man can accomplish much.
James 5:16

CANADA

Although small in number, the Canada prayer group was steadfast. Concerns that were raised and prayed for range from National unity, French Canada and Native work; to O.B.C., Toronto, and the Church in the '80's. We are encouraged by the increased interest expressed by fellow students. Why not plan to join us next year?

JEWISH

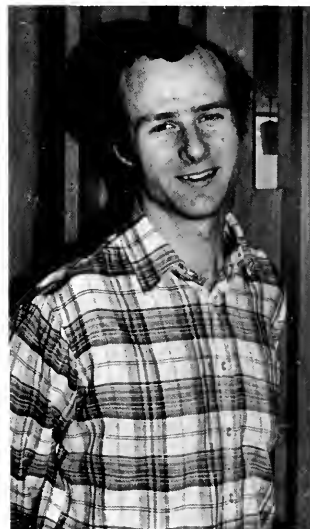

Not only has God heard and answered our prayers, but He has also richly blessed us through our praying, singing, and sharing with one another. Shalom!

INDIA-MUSLIM

We joined forces this year to pray for the 650 million of India and the 750 million Muslims of the world. We were especially challenged by the India crisis and the growing animosity towards Christianity.

Canada: Neil Cameron.

India and Muslim: Deb Waugh and Bonnie Steadman.

Latin America: Priscilla Henry.

WEST INDIES

Each week a group of prayer warriors unite to battle for those on the front lines, thousands of miles away. We are confident that our effective prayers have affected the missionaries and nationals. "Prayer changes things."

LATIN AMERICA

For us it has been a time of drawing near to God with grateful and prayerful hearts for the nationals and missionaries we know in the countries.

UNITED STATES

The United States prayer group of four, met once a week to pray for missionaries and political problems in the U.S.A.

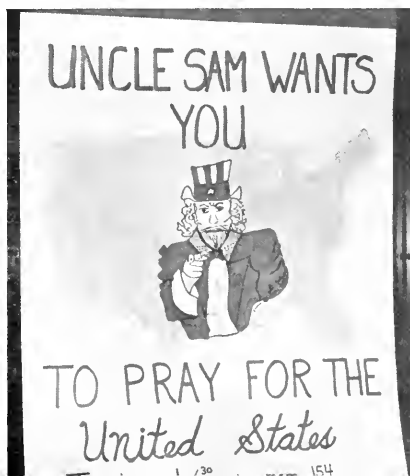

S.C.G.M. PRAYER GROUPS

At this time we would all like to acknowledge the one person who has attended every meeting - the Lord Jesus Christ. We thank the Lord for giving us a leader for each group; and though the groups were small we trust He has glorified His name among the nations. "Praise the Lord".

A Time for Worship

Fun, Food, and Fellowship.

The Missions Conference hosted several speakers and events again this year. Our theme speaker, Rev. Ron Wiebe, expounded on our theme, "Calling the World Person to Person". In fact, we did call the world person to person each night on our Hot Line with Luther Billis. We learned much about the Church in Russia from Rev. E. Davies and gained valuable insight into the Jonestown tragedy from the film "Deceived". Students were challenged with the responsibility of serving Christ around the world through panel discussions, messages and talking one-to-one with the missionaries.

Christmas Choir

Twas the night before Christmas Choir and all through the school, not a singer was stirring because of John's rule.
(in bed by 10 pm, "ministry means sacrifice")

The choristers were nestled all snug in their beds
while visions of white dresses, bow ties and PLASTIC poinsettia's danced in their heads.

When out on the driveway,
there arose such a fuss
they sprang from their beds and ran to the bus.

They heard a "tonal-yawn-sigh"
instead of a yell
and knew in a flash
it must be a Bell!

To Hamilton, London,
Kitchener, and Toronto
they sang with great gusto
and then dashed home pronto

The minstrels returned all weary and worn to write their exams
upon the next morn.

P.T.H. - Putting Hubby Through

Mr. A. Davey and Friend.

The Class of '80 thanks Bill Thornton and Bonnie Steadman for their charming performance as host and hostess at this year's graduation banquet which was held on April 11, 1980 at the Town and Country Restaurant. The food was delicious and plentiful and the entertainment was excellent.

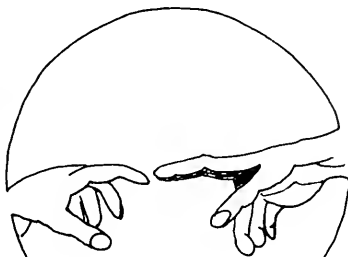

A special thanks to Class of '81 for a job well done.

Class Day Exercises

Friendship is...

...forever

Is that you, Linda?

"I'm too young to ..."

Class Day Exercises were held in the Alumni Hall on April 16, 1980 in order to give the Class of '80 an opportunity to be sentimental and reminiscent as they looked back over the 3, 4, 5, or maybe more years here at O.B.C. We thank Linda Moorcroft for organizing the program. Ya' did good, Linda!

Baccalaureate

The beginning of the end and the promise of another beginning is, perhaps, the significance of the Baccalaureate Service. Held on Sunday afternoon, April 20, 1980, in the spacious accommodation of Bayview Glen Church. It was a reminder to graduating students that their career at O.B.C. was almost at an end. However, this year it brought encouragement for a future of serving the Lord through the testimonies of Judy Cote and Randy Joliffe and the message of Dr. Mario Di Gangi, all of whom led us in thanksgiving for the past year and challenged us for the years to come.

Grad Rehearsal

Among the memorable occasions in the O.B.C. year, graduation rehearsal must surely be counted. This year was no exception. According to tradition, the graduating class let off steam in the planning of their own version of the processional by covering Mr. Wallace, the senior class advisor, with flowers and voting him Sweetheart of the class of '80. Despite the change of location from Varsity Arena to the Colliseum and the problems of lighting and acoustics, the rehearsal was by no means a disaster and the morning made its contribution to the final hours of another year in the life of O.B.C.

a NOTE

from the Yearbook to: the Yearbook Staff

Thanks to each one of you for your help and support in putting these pages together. I trust that our goal of giving all the glory to God in this book has been met.

May you experience His richest blessings as you seek to know Him better and to do His will!

Sincerely in Christ,

Judy
